DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 17-30 are pending. Claims 17 and 19 have been amended in this communication filed 4/06/10 entered as Response After Non-Final Action.
2. The 35 USC 112, Second Paragraph Rejection for claim 17 has been overcome by Applicants' amendment to claim 17 and is hereby withdrawn.
3. The Objections to claims 18-30 have been overcome by the amendment to claim 19 and Applicants' convincing arguments and the objections to the claims are hereby withdrawn.

Claims 17-30 are allowed and now renumbered 1-14.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art is Yaksich et al. and Sevcik et al. Yaksich et al. and Sevcik et al. disclose executing a job according to quote parameters upon receiving an order from a buyer. Yaksich et al. and Sevcik et al. did not disclose receiving the event data at the print processing facility and comparing the event data to one or more predefined event rules that determine that the printed product should be produced or should not be produced and in response in response to a determination that the printed product should be produced, automatically generates a print order for the printed product using information extracted from the event data.

Other Relevant Prior Art

Pickens et al. (US 5,091,868) and Young et al. (US 5,781,911).

An extensive search was performed and no better prior art was found.

Other Relevant Prior Art

Bator et al. (US 6,575,362); Barzilai et al. (US 6,012,045); and Cotton et al. (US 6,076,074).

For these reasons claim 1 is deemed allowable over the prior art of record and claims 18-30 are allowed by dependency.

It appears that the instant invention is beyond the skill of one of ordinary art. Accordingly the invention would NOT have been obvious because one of ordinary skill could not have been expected to achieve it. NOR would they have been able to predict the results, and as such, they would have not capability of expecting success.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
